DataSys Revamps Training Room and Great Plains Curriculum

Marlborough, Mass. – January 31, 2012

Over the years, DataSys' training program has been quite popular. The 2011 launch of the Mastering Management Reporter class saw dozens of customers come through the door for training.

Based on customer feedback, DataSys will be offering some new classes, beginning in late Q2. Mastering Accounts Payable will provide in-depth training for payables professionals, and is expected to be popular. Details on the expanded Mastery Series will be available in the spring (sometime after the start of Red Sox spring training).

DataSys also invested in new training tables to add to the comfort of our training room.
